Civil Service Month

Civil Service Month is observed in September every year. It commemorates the establishment of the civil service. In 1997 Presidential Proclamation No. 1050, designated the month of September as National Civil Service Month.

Recognizing Labor Day

Observed the first Monday in September, Labor Day is an annual celebration to recognize the many contributions workers have made to America's strength, prosperity, and well-being. To all workers nation wide, WE THANK YOU!
