International Women in Engineering Day

Celebrated on June 23rd

We recognize the incredible achievements of women around the world for their contributions to our progressive society before the term 'Engineer' was even coined in the 11th century. We reflect our gratitude to women like Elizabeth Bragg, the first woman to receive a degree in civil engineering from the University of Berkeley and Ada Lovelace, who collaborated with Charles Babbage to design the first computer program in the world. We extend our appreciation to them and others for paving the way for all the women who were able to follow their lead in STEM fields today.

Upcoming events and holidays:

- Father's Day - Sunday, June 18th
- Juneteenth - Monday, June 19th
- Independence Day - Tuesday, July 4th
